

"Tolerance(s) - concepts, language, ideas, history" International Conference

Stockholm, Sweden

12th – 13th October 2020

This conference is a follow-up on the 2019 Nice Conference "Tolérance(s)" and arranged in cooperation with :

MSHS – Maison des sciences de l'homme et de la société sud-est, Nice.

It will be multi-disciplinary but mainly focusing on the two following themes:

- what could the concept "tolerance" mean today (from, for example, a linguistic, literary, historical or sociological perspective)?
- how has the concept of "tolerance" been developed historically over a long period of time?

The Conference will be taking place at the Royal Swedish Academy of Letters, History and Antiquities, and at Stockholm University. One venue will be Accelerator: An exhibition space where art, science and social issues meet – and a part of Stockholm University.

The participants will also be specially invited to the Nobel Prize Museum in Stockholm.

Call for papers will soon be out. But if you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact:
